Bit by Bit, Cell by Cell

Event Type: performance party
Start Date: 5 Oct 2006
Venue: Eyebeam

Join us to celebrate the release of Bit by Bit, Cell by Cell (Innova), the latest World of Awe project. The music CD is a collaboration between media artist Yael Kanarek, composer Yoav Gal and dancefilmmaker Evann Siebens.

In World of Awe a traveler searches for a lost treasure in a parallel world called Sunset/Sunrise. Bit by Bit, Cell by Cell sets texts from the treasure hunt to soprano and Atari, with a dancefilm shot on 6th street in Manhattan.

During the party the World of Awe band (Yoav Gal with sopranos Heather Green and Sarah Rivkin) will play songs from the CD and Evann Siebens will perform choreographed elements from her dancefilm Portal.

World of Awe is an ongoing project by Yael Kanarek.

Drinks courtesy of bitforms gallery. The CD is available for sale at the Eyebeam bookstore
