ADAMS -- Greylock Arts announces its first ever Web exhibit (greylockarts.net/turbulentworks) "Turbulent Works," featuring 10 works of Net Art previously commissioned by Turbulence. The works allow visitors to experience new interfaces for sound expression, art created within virtual worlds, art which is politically and socially motivated, video performances, photographic explorations, and Websites reinterpreted through painting.

Over the past several months, Greylock Arts has been collaborating with Turbulence and MCLA Gallery 51 on "Networked Realities: (Re)Connecting the Adamases."

As part of the project, Turbulence is offering commissions to artists living or working in Adams and North Adams to produce Net Art for an upcoming exhibition on the Turbulence Web site and at Greylock Arts. Submit your proposal by email to:
